Discovery: 2 days - 1 night

Join us for an overnight stay and discover our Center and elephants. Welcome to your idyllic holiday destination in the Land of the Asian Elephant on the shores of a majestic lake surrounded by untouched tropical forest. During your visit at the Center you will spend a lot of time walking through our protected area. The area is forested and might not always be accessible without you getting dirty. Activities in the forest vary during the rainy season between May and September. You will be guided by a local English speaking guide and international experts.

Day 1: Travel from Luang Prabang by minivan – Boat trip – Walk Through the Forest – Picnic Lunch – Nursery Visit – Hospital Visit – Observe Elephants Bathing – Encounter Elephants & Mahouts – Dinner.

When you arrive at Nam Tien Lake, we will transfer you to the Center by boat. You will have time to settle into your private bungalow before your guide takes you to the forest. Along the way, you walk past the different enclosures where our main activities take place. After enjoying a Laotian style picnic on a lakeside platform, you observe the bath time at the nursery, an area in the forest reserved for our youngest elephants and their mothers.

When the elephants have drunk enough and returned to the forest, you will take the boat back to the Center for the hospital visit. Our Laotian vet assistant or our biologist will introduce you to their world and tell you more about common and uncommon injuries and their respective treatments. It is also the perfect time to ask any questions you may have about the biology of the elephants.

You will then observe one of the elephants' daily baths and learn more about our giant guests' playful characters. Elephants love water. They also use the bath time to socialize and strengthen ties in the herd.

After the elephants have washed themselves, you will have the opportunity to see them up close. Their ears flapping, tails swatting while they use the trunk and the trees for a good scratching. Meanwhile, the guide will tell you a little about the background of each elephant. They have all been worked hard before they came here. See if you are already able to recognize the elephants while observing them.

Now it's time for them to walk back to the forest. After a short trek the mahouts will decide on a place where the elephants can graze for the night.

Before dinner, take a moment to take in the surroundings from one of our viewpoints. You can also go for a swim in the lake, take out a canoe, or visit the museum. At 6 pm one of the staff will give a presentation on our conservation efforts, feel free to ask your unresolved questions. After dinner you can relax at the bar with the staff and share one of our delicious Lao style cocktails!

Day 2: Breakfast – Meet the elephants in the forest – Observe elephants bathing – Socialization Area Observation – Lunch.

On the second day, you will meet up with the elephants in the forest. After spending the night in the jungle, it is time for another bath. Enjoy strolling together with these magnificent animals in their natural habitat.

When they have had their fill of water they are brought to the Socialization Area. This is an area where the elephants can freely interact during a big part of the day, recreating a semi-natural living environment. Here the elephants can enjoy being elephants. Follow the guide around the perimeter to learn more about the group and its dynamics. Take your time on the different platforms to see how a new herd is being formed. This rare opportunity will bring you closer to their natural life, something which is very special about our program and difficult to find anywhere else.

Lunch is served at the Center. You have some time to relax before we bring you back to Luang Prabang by minivan. You can say your goodbyes to the staff at the restaurant or walk around the Center one last time.

Special note: Medical Care and “positive reinforcement” training of the elephants at the Elephant Hospital are only carried out by qualified vets. Unfortunately, you won't be able to participate in this activity. Thank you for your understanding.

This programme starts at 8:00 on day 1 and ends at about 17:00 on day 2. We will pick you up in Luang Prabang and return you to Luang Prabang after lunch on day 2. Accommodation is in a wooden bungalow with shared washing facilities.

This rare opportunity will bring you closer to their natural life, something which is very special about our program and difficult to find anywhere else.

Lunch is served at the Center. Lunch is served at the Center. You will visit our medicinal garden dedicated to elephant care. You can then join our workshop and learn how to create some local handicraft products using bamboo or rattan. While at the workshop, you can observe the elephants having their afternoon bath.

You will meet our mahouts or our vet technician again as they will conduct a Target Training Session. All our elephants are being trained using 'positive reinforcement' techniques to facilitate any necessary treatments and to reduce the stress that these treatments or routine checks can give to them. We offer you the chance to follow their work from a safe distance.

Day 3: Breakfast – Enrichment – Lunch.

On the third day, your guide will explain the ECC's Sensorial Enrichment Activities. Enrichment is a dynamic process for enhancing animal environments within the context of the animal's behavioural biology.

We are providing cognitive enrichment in the form of hidden food, toys, a mud bath etc. to give elephants mental stimulation and help them avoid boredom. They love it! We invite you to take part in this amazing experience by helping our team prepare the enclosure, cutting and hiding food, creating new games for them... to give elephants some challenging exercises to solve. Once they arrive, you will have the opportunity to observe how elephants find ways to discover what you have hidden! This is a novel and unique way to interact with our elephants, contributing directly to their well-being.

Day 3 : (RAINY SEASON): Breakfast - Departure for Camp 2 by boat - Trek in the forest with the mahouts and elephants - Traditional Lao lunch in the forest - Return to main camp in the afternoon.

On the third day, you will follow the mahouts in their daily work. After crossing the Nam Tien lake, you will discover the second camp, isolated in the forest. In full immersion with the mahouts and your Lao guide, you will learn more about the relation between elephants and their mahouts. During the trek you will discover another area of the ECC concession, where we run both the breeding program and the pre-release tests for the elephants that will be returned to the wild in the future. Sharing lunch with Lao people is always a good opportunity to learn some Lao words and understand the Lao culture.

Day 3: (DRY SEASON): Breakfast – Trip to Sayaboury market – Visit of a traditional Lao village – Trek in the forest with mahouts and elephants – Traditional Lao lunch in the village – Return to the Center in the afternoon.

Visit the local market in Sayaboury to buy some food before leaving to the village where some elephants are staying. Learn more about the relation between elephants and mahouts in a traditional environment, in total immersion with mahouts and your Lao guide. Lunch in the village. Visit the village school. Eco Volunteering: 7 days - 6 nights

Departures on Mondays

This eco volunteering programme is your gateway to feeling like a part of the Elephant Conservation team! It will give you a more in-depth insight into what it takes to look after elephants. During the week, you will share in the life of our staff and learn more about the Lao culture. You may even pick up a bit of Lao language! You will start by following our 3 day 'Exploration' program. Then you will be asked to assist us in the Center's development by participating in current projects on site.

During your visit at the Center you will spend a lot of time walking through our protected area. The area is forested and might not always be accessible without you getting dirty. Day 4-6: Breakfast - Volunteer Work - Lunch - Volunteer Work - Dinner.

You will spend your remaining days supporting the work of the ECC on current projects. These volunteer projects will not be directly with elephants, but help them a lot indirectly in keeping the Center running.

Please keep in mind that you are working in a developing country with minimal access to western tools. Activities can be influenced by the weather, i.e. rain or heat. We are looking for flexible and autonomous volunteers.

For example:

- Spend a day with local mahouts;
- Development and maintenance of the socialization area (cleaning, cut grasses around the electric fence, protecting the trees etc);
- Enrichment Activities;
- Tree Nursery and Reforestation;
- Maintenance work (painting, cleaning, gardening);
- Create handicraft at our work shop (when possible);

Of course, we are always open to project ideas you might have yourselves

Day 7: Breakfast - Volunteer Work - Lunch.

On your final morning you will complete your volunteering session and then, after lunch, the boat will return you to the Nam Tien Lake pier, where our minivan will be waiting to take you back to Luang Prabang or to drop you off at the Sayaboury bus station for your next destination.

Special note: Medical Care and "positive reinforcement" training of the elephants at the Elephant Hospital are only carried out by qualified vets. Unfortunately, you won't be able to participate in this activity. Thank you for your understanding.

This programme starts at 08:00 on day 1 and ends at about 17:00 on day 7. We will pick you up in Luang Prabang and return you to Luang Prabang after lunch on day 7. Terms & Conditions

CURRENCY

All amounts mentioned in this quotation are stated in US Dollars, but are occasionally calculated in other currencies - especially when using a credit card.

BOOKING

All clients are deemed to have read these terms and conditions and have signed a reservation form which must be made directly between the customer and the Elephant Conservation Center (ECC). The booking includes the number of participants, a list of participants' names incl. title (Ms., Mr.), nationality and passport numbers prior to the departure. To secure a booking, ECC requires a completed booking containing all relevant information detailed above by e-mail, telephone, fax, or via Checkfront. Clients booking are deemed to accept these terms and conditions and sign a waiver when boarding our minivan to the Center. A booking is accepted and a contract is entered into as soon as ECC issues a written confirmation of the booking. The booking will be secured upon reception of the payment (see below). If Clients are not paying the booking in timely manner, ECC reserves the right to cancel the booking.

PAYMENT

An invoice will be issued with the confirmation of the booking and the submission of the participants' details as stated above. Payments can be made by bank transfer which will incur a bank fee, or cash (at the ECC). Account details are given on the booking confirmation. Note that all bank transfer fees have to be covered in full by the client.

In case of a payment being made later than 90 days after the invoice is sent, a penalty of 10% of the total invoice will be applied.

CANCELLATION BY ECC

ECC reserves the right to cancel any trip due to reasons beyond its control (i.e.: natural disasters or political instability). In such a case ECC will refund monies received in full (minus bank transfer fees).

INSURANCE

ECC guarantees that all its buses and cars owned by ECC are insured as commercial passenger vehicle. Insurance coverage does not apply after the passengers have exited the vehicle. A private travel insurance is compulsory for all people traveling with ECC. Your travel insurance must provide cover against personal accident, medical expenses, emergency repatriation and personal liability. We also advise to contract insurance coverage against cancellation, curtailment, and loss of luggage and personal effects. The participants must be aware that during the course of the trip certain risks and dangers may occur, including but not limited to hazards of traveling on a mountain bicycle, kayak, hiking, or driving in a motor vehicle or boat, snakes, insects and other wildlife and proximity of elephants. It may also involve an accident or illness in remote places without appropriate facilities, or be caused by the forces of nature. The client agrees to assume all risks associated with the trip and agrees that no liability will be attached to the company or its outfitter, employees or agent, or to any member of the tour group. ECC accepts no liability in respect of death, personal injury, illness or delay of the passenger, or for any loss or damage to the property of the participant during the course of the trip, however caused.

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

Clients must carry a valid passport and obtain the relevant visas when traveling with ECC. We cannot accept responsibility if entry is denied to Laos or any other country due to incorrect visa or passport documentation.

COMPLAINTS

If a client has a complaint about the tour, he or she must make it known to the tour guide (leader) as soon as possible so that he/she is able to take appropriate action at the earliest opportunity. If the client is not satisfied with our response and he/she feels his or her enjoyment of the tour will be significantly affected the client should contact our manager at ECC to discuss how we might best resolve the problem. If the client remains unsatisfied after return from the tour, we must be notified in writing within 30 days.

RESPONSIBILITY

When booking an ECC tour, the client understands that ECC runs adventure and outdoor tours in Laos where the standards of accommodation, transport, safety, hygiene, level of infrastructure development and medical facilities, and telecommunication services are not necessarily the same as one may be used to at home, or one would find on a conventional holiday. This type of holiday inherently involves a higher level of personal risk than a 'conventional holiday'. ECC, the Government of Laos and the Lao National Tourism Administration cannot accept any responsibility for accidents, injuries, death, or loss of personal effects. The client understands that during the course of the tour certain events may occur, including, but not limited to, accident or illness in remote places without medical facilities, political instability and the forces of nature. The client agrees to assume all risks associated with the journey to the maximum extent permitted by law. Each client acknowledges that travel on ECC tour requires a degree of flexibility, and understands that the itinerary, accommodation and modes of transport are subject to change without prior notice due to local circumstances. Should ECC deem it advisable to amend an itinerary for any reason, it may do so by shortening, varying or re-routing any trip. These changes are binding and additional expenses will be charged to the client, if the reason for any alteration is outside control from ECC. While traveling with ECC, the client agrees to accept the authority of the leader or local operator at all time. He/she is aware that travel within a group may involve compromise to accommodate the diverse desires and physical abilities of group members. The client understands that ECC reserves the right to decline the participation of any person as a member of the group at any time. The client acknowledges that ECC contracts a network of companies, government agencies and individuals throughout the country to assist in the running of its tours. To the best of ECC knowledge, these third parties are qualified to perform the duties they are contracted to perform. However, ECC will not be held liable for any injury, damage, loss, delay or irregularity that may occur due to the behavior of these third parties. ECC will not accept responsibility or liability for any traveler who contravenes any law or regulation of Lao P. D. R. No employee, servant or agent of ECC has authority to alter these conditions.
